Office of the Postmaster General

Washington 25, D. C.

July 30, 1962

Dear Mr. McCone:

I was happy to accept the President's invitation to serve as Chairman of the Government Division of the 1962 United Givers Fund Campaign in the National Capital Area. This great community effort is truly a challenging one for it combines in a single appeal, eliminating a multiplicity of solicitations, the needs of 143 national and local agencies.

Indeed, it is particularly challenging for it will seek 6% more than was raised last year since funds were inadequate to meet the many vital needs and essential services. Among them are the Red Cross, USO, the Salvation Army, Family Service Agencies, the Scouts, the Retarded Children Associations, and scores of health and welfare agencies dedicated to make our community a better place in which to live. Through a single gift we can assist homeless children, provide comfort to the aged, help those afflicted with mental illness and crippling disease, provide essential youth activities and help those whose lives and homes have been wrecked by disaster. Quite simply stated, the real challenge is to meet human needs.

Meeting these human needs requires the full support of all government leaders and I am confident that you will want to help make this effort the most outstanding in our history. I would therefore appreciate it greatly if you would serve as Chairman and select a Vice Chairman to carry out the details of the campaign in the Central Intelligence Agency.

In order to commence the pre-campaign organization and planning, it is vital that I have your acceptance and the name of your Vice Chairman as speedily as possible. I am confident your assistance will substantially contribute to the effective discharge of this important civic responsibility by all of us in Government.

Sincerely,

Postmaster General

The Honorable John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.
